"Game Plan" – Defining Your Destiny...Defeating Your Difficulty

The late Jim Rohn once said, "Life is difficulty mixed with opportunity." This powerful statement stands true and applies to all people both professionally and personally. Therefore, the key to ongoing success and continual improvement is to develop the mindset of both service and survival.

In this presentation, Dave combines the principles of his signature keynote "The Game-Winning 3" with the principles of his keynote "Rebound" to lead the audience down a pathway of both victory and resurgence.

Whether enjoying our own "Game-Winning 3" moments or creating our pathway to "Rebound" from adversity, it is vital to develop an effective "GAME PLAN".
