Greenville, South Carolina

Greenville is a city that will surprise you, engage you, charm you, delight you. Maybe it'll be the first time you stroll along the wide, welcoming sidewalks that frame our award-winning Main Street or when you step out onto Liberty Bridge at Falls Park on the Reedy and gaze down at the energetic tumble of waterfalls below. Maybe it'll be when you stride through the gates of Fluor Field, the Fenway-inspired ballpark that anchors our bustling West End or maybe it'll happen somewhere in-between—when you lean into an open-air artist's studio, grab a bite to eat at a street-front café or pause to sing along with a talented street musician—that you'll realize that you are someplace very special.

Given the fact that Greenville was once a town driven by the textile industry, it seems appropriate that Main Street has become the connective thread that weaves our downtown together. With its wide, tree-lined sidewalks (wait until you see it at night, when twinkling lights create a magical canopy), this bustling boulevard has turned Greenville into a true walking city, and step-by-step, you'll discover its treasures.

The SASBO officers describe Greenville as a cross between Savannah (for the beauty) and Gatlinburg (for the walkability and small town charm).

Getting to Greenville

Driving? Nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Greenville is conveniently located halfway between Atlanta and Charlotte providing excellent highway access (I-85, I385, I-185, I-26).

The City of Greenville owns the attached parking garage to the Hyatt Regency for $7.00 per night for self-parking.

The Greenville–Spartanburg International Airport located along I-85 is 13 miles from the conference hotel and is a major airport with flights provided by Allegiant, American Airlines, Contour Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Inc., Silver Airways, Southwest Airlines, and United Airlines. They service over 100 departing non-stop flights daily. Once you arrive, there are a few options for ground transportation to take you to the Hyatt Regency Greenville.

Ground transportation –

Uber, Lyft, and rental cars are available at the airport.

Discovery Tracks

This year, ALL attendees will attend “The Great SASBO Footprint Challenge” for your discovery track on Wednesday. On Thursday you will choose between tracks. Spaces for each track are limited, so register early for your top choice!

Each morning we will begin together as one group for a leadership based general sessions presented by top notch keynote speakers and networking. Following the leadership session, we will break out into our groups for lunch and the afternoon activities.

Wednesday Discovery Track Day

Join us at 8:30 to begin our day with engaging sessions!

8:30 – 9:45

Speaker: Steve Heffner

“From A-ha to TA-DA! – Magically level up your performance by breaking through your invisible mind traps.”

Each of us has amazing performance potential, but to reach it we must recognize and break through the hidden illusions that are barriers to our success.

In this motivational and entertaining program, learn how to achieve “TA-DA!” moments of success and self-improvement by recognizing and overcoming the false beliefs and stories that can trick us into negativity, fear and settling for the status quo.

Key take-aways:

- Learn the secrets of attention control to better defeat distraction and misdirection
- Prioritize and leverage the massive advantages of high trust relationships
- Step out their comfort zone by recognizing and mitigating the status quo bias

10:00 – 11:15

Speaker: Alex Brown

“Dealing with Difficult People”

Why can't everyone just be like me? Wouldn't the world be an easier place that way? Too often we allow our differences to divide us and distract us from being our best.

Join Alex and he will help you reframe how you view people who are different from you with the intent of creating more peaceful and productive work relationships.

Wednesday Discovery Track Day

11:15 – 12:15 Lunch

12:15 – Break into Teams for Challenge

The Great SASBO Footprint Challenge

After meeting your teammates, follow instructions as you have a scavenger hunt on our walk to Group Therapy for experimental entertainment.
